LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today announced that the Little Rock school board will remain in control of racial moderates for another year.

The court handed down a ruling which means that only the six board members will seek re-election this year and will retain their positions.

The ruling aroused the ire of segregationists by opening the door to integration at the start of the next term.

The court reversed Pulaski County Judge Murray O. Reed, who had been upheld by the state supreme court.

The court ruled that the three members would have had to resign at the school election, which will be held Sept. 1.

Segregationist spokesmen have vowed to seek to oust the court by filing a writ of certiorari.

They are involved in today's case over board members who were appointed by the Pulaski County Board of Education to succeed strong segregationists removed in a recall election last May.

The court ruled that the three members to serve only one year would have had to resign at the school election, which will be held Sept. 1.

Tuesday Is Election Day in Arkansas

Tomorrow is general election day in Arkansas, but most voters won't care.

This is the off-year — when no state or national offices are at stake and the campaigning and issues are local.

And on the local level, there are virtually no contests. The issues, if any, were settled in last summer's Democratic primaries.

One steelman who has signed with the union predicted Sunday the two sides eventually will agree on an economic package close to that he negotiated. But Edgar F. Kaiser did not predict when it would come.

As board chairman of the Kaiser Steel Corp., Kaiser agreed last week to a 20-month contract with the United Steelworkers Union. He estimated its cost at 19½ cents hourly per man, not counting a cost of living rise that could add as much as three cents.

"The final agreement," Kaiser said on a television program, "will be close to the economic package we offered. The contract language, I don't know. It may be a much deeper issue."

One of the biggest obstacles to agreement has been the companies' insistence on contract changes which would give them more leeway in changing work rules. The union strongly opposes this.

The companies have rejected a money proposal similar to that Kaiser agreed to. They estimated its cost at 32½ cents an hour.

The latest series of meetings ended last week in Pittsburgh. Union President David J. McDonald called them "another exercise of futility."

The Supreme Court hears arguments Tuesday on the legality of an injunction to halt the strike under the Taft-Hartley law. Lower courts have granted the government's request for a court order ending the men back to work, but its effectiveness has been delayed until the Supreme Court rules on it.

Benton has five candidates — John D. Little, Sam D. Carson, Charles Richards, George H. McDonald Sr. and Hugh Nethercutt. They are seeking the office vacated by the death of Mayor George Trout who was unopposed for reelection before his death.

Incumbent Mayor Toler Bachman has opposition from Jack Finley Robinson in his bid for a third term at Blytheville.

Decision Asked on Bond Money Use

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit to determine whether a county can use bond money to build a 22½-inch road to serve a proposed 35 million dollar plant of the Arkansas Forests, Inc.

J. K. Myland contested this use of bond money in what an attorney described as a friendly suit. In his suit he said the amendment, providing for industrial bond issues, didn't cover road building.

"The election," he contended, "was merely a scheme to pave a county road."

Chancellor James McArthur of Marion County ruled against Myland and an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court.

Both men were bonded.

Steel Mediators Call in Both Sides Separately

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal mediators met separately with both sides in the 111-day-old steel strike for 75 minutes today with no indication a settlement was near.

Federal Conciliator Joseph F. Finnegan set further meetings for 1:30 p. m. (EST) with management negotiators, and 4 p. m. (EST) with negotiators for the striking United Steelworkers Union.

Finnegan showed no particular optimism. David J. McDonald, steelworkers president, had only a glum appraisal of settlement prospects.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, told newsmen: "It is now apparent that the union is determined to force a 'skateboard' settlement on the steel industry and the nation."

"Clearly, they are interested only in perpetuating inflation in America and wasteful practices in the steel industry," Cooper said.

Before going into session with the mediators, McDonald complained to newsmen that many of the top steel company officials were absent, declaring:

"I don't think a summit conference could be held if the presidents and premiers were not present. Nothing can happen if they talk in their homes and their offices," he said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal mediators stepped back full force into the steel strike picture today, shifting the deadlocked talks here a day before the Supreme Court hears arguments involving the dispute.

But there was nothing to indicate agreement would come quicker here than at New York or Pittsburgh, where negotiators in the 111-day-old strike have held long and largely futile sessions.

Arkansas Has 21 Deaths on Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twenty-one persons perished in a week-filled weekend on Arkansas highways, raising to 29 the number of violent deaths in the state during the week which ended at midnight Sunday.

The staggering toll of traffic fatalities was one of the worst in many years, State Police said. The wave of accidents began Friday and continued through Sunday, although it tapered off Saturday night. Twenty-two persons were injured.

Other traffic accidents during the week took three lives. One person died of accidental electrocution, one by shooting one in a mining accident and one in an oil field mishap.

Rainy weather may have contributed to the epidemic of smash-ups, which included three triple-fatality wrecks, two Friday and one Saturday.

Three auto accident victims died yesterday.

Mildred Burgess, 7, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Burgess of near Conway, died in a Conway hospital of injuries received in a wreck Friday night south of Mayflower. The Negro child was not wearing consciousness since the accident.

Jimmy Lee Spoon, 23, of Colter, Ark., died in a Harrison hospital of injuries suffered when his car left State Highway 3, north of Midway, and crashed. A passenger, Dean Denton, 21, of Mountain Home, had minor injuries.

Charles Cummings, 17, of North Little Rock, was killed when a car ran off Highway 107 and plunged into a shallow creek near Proctor. Two others in the car, Jim Fennell and Don Albert Mason, both 13, were injured. Fennell was released after medical treatment but Mason was reported in serious condition at a Little Rock hospital.

Fire Destroys Earl Dudley Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dudley on the Rocky Mound road was destroyed by fire late Sunday afternoon. Origin of the blaze is unknown. Everything was a total loss including the house and contents.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley were not at home when the blaze started. Hope firemen were called to scene but it was too late to save anything.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and the heads of Britain, France and West Germany will meet in Paris Dec. 19 to work out a solid Western stand for talks with the Soviet Union.

Agreement on the date and place of the meeting was announced in the four capitals Sunday. The White House and Eisenhower will return here in time to spend Christmas with his family.

Prime subjects for discussion at the Paris meeting appeared to be:

1. When do the leaders meet with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in a summit conference?

2. Or that issues, if any, will they compromise in negotiations with him?

Reports from London said that Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will go to Paris determined to lead the summit conference with Khrushchev he held in January or February. President Charles de Gaulle of France has insisted that the conference be delayed until spring at the earliest. It is believed Eisenhower leans toward Macmillan's position.

On the second question, observers believe Macmillan is willing to make concessions to Khrushchev, settling the Berlin issue by agreeing to an agreement on German unity. But de Gaulle feels that the Soviets are responsible for the crisis in the world. He believes that if there are concessions to be made, the Soviets must make them. Part of statements of Eisenhower's private hints to agree with de Gaulle on this issue.

The fourth leader, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany will not attend the summit conference with Khrushchev.

The Western summit meeting will follow by only a couple of days a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Council Dec. 14-17.

Five Forest Fires Rage in California

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five forest fires in Northern California erupted out of control early today while a small army tried to contain the three most serious.

By late Sunday flames had blackened more than 40,000 acres, mostly in El Dorado and Tahoe National Forests west and southwest of Lake Tahoe in the Sierra Nevada. Forest Service officials estimated 10 million dollars damage to timber and watersheds from these three fires.

The two other uncontrolled fires were in Sonoma County, four miles north of Guerneville, 750 acres, and in Humboldt County, four miles east of Eureka, 1,400 acres of brush and woodland. San Francisco is 60 miles south of Guerneville and 185 miles south of Eureka.

Van Doren told the committee, "Foolishly and wrongly I persuaded myself it was all true."

Van Doren appeared before a packed audience with crowds waiting outside. This time his questions and answers were not televised since such broadcasts are prohibited by House rules.

Van Doren started his testimony with a prepared statement telling how he was coached and given answers. He admitted he testified falsely before the New York grand jury.

Van Doren said he stood by in the Twenty-One program for several weeks without actually appearing. Finally, he said, Freedman summoned him to his apartment and took him into a bedroom.

The producer told him, Van Doren went on, that Herbert Stempel, then the "champion" on the Twenty-One show, was unavailable but that he was not an attractive contestant. He asked Van Doren, the witness continued, if he would agree to an arrangement under which he would let Stempel add to the entertainment value of the program.

These are the changes proposed by the railroads:

1. Revision of the 40-year-old pay standard, based on mileage, for engine and train crews to reflect increased train speeds.

2. Elimination of rules prohibiting crews from operating through present crew change points, in order to end multiple changes on short train runs.

3. Elimination of arbitrary lines drawn between the work that may be performed by road crews and yard crews.

4. Establishment of the right for management to determine when firemen should be used on diesel and other non-steam locomotives in freight and yard service.

5. Elimination of all rules which stipulate the number of crew members required.

6. Ending of rules which require idle standby operating employees when self-propelled equipment is used in track maintenance, repair or inspection.

The railroads and three key unions are presently deadlocked in wage negotiations.

Injuries Prove Fatal to Wife of Henry Bowden

Mrs. Dorothy Jane Bowden, aged 22, died Saturday of injuries suffered earlier Saturday morning in an auto accident at Fayetteville. She was a native of Mineral Springs.

Survivors included her husband, Henry Bowden, director of the U of A Strawberry Station at Bald Knob; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooley of Hope; a daughter, Pamela Marie, a brother, Leroy Cooley of Hope and a sister, Mrs. Wesley Huddleston of Sparkman.

Services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Unity Missionary Baptist Church of Hope by the Rev. Bill Moore assisted by Rev. Quatman of Bald Knob. Burial at Oakes will be in Memorial Gardens.

Students Pull Prank, Placed on Probation

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Seven students at Arkansas State Teachers College have been placed on permanent probation for a fire on the Arkansas Tech campus at Russellville the night of Oct. 22.

The fire damaged a Tech homecoming decoration, two days before Teen and Teachers played football at Russellville.

An investigation which followed led to suspension of the Teachers students whose names were not disclosed.

Five of the seven are freshmen.

Van Doren Tells Probers Entire Program Fixed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles Van Doren testified today he was given answers, and even given a regular script to memorize, when he appeared on the supposedly unrehearsed "Twenty-One" television quiz program. He said he was coached in numerous ways.

Van Doren admitted he testified falsely last year before the New York grand jury investigating the quiz programs.

He told the House investigating subcommittee "I was deeply involved in a deception."

Van Doren said he would give anything to reverse the course of his life since his big-money quiz performance three years ago.

Van Doren named Albert Freedman, producer of the show, as the man who persuaded him to cooperate in rigging the show and then coached him.

A telling argument Freedman used, Van Doren said, was that as the son of a famous literary family and a member of the Columbia University faculty, Van Doren would "increase public respect for the intellectual life, for the teaching profession" by participating in a good show.

He said Freedman also told him "it was all entertainment" and coaching of contestants was routine.

"Perhaps I wanted to believe it," Van Doren told the committee. "Foolishly and wrongly I persuaded myself it was all true."

Mooty Pushes Spikes in Ball Carrying

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The fight for the lead in ballcarrying tightened up in Southwest Conference football last week with Texas Christian's Jack Spikes only 32 yards ahead of Jim Mooty of Arkansas.

Don Meredith, Southern Methodist's mighty passer, moved so far out in passing and total offense, however, that it became no contest.

Spikes rambled for 92 yards against Baylor but Mooty racked up 112 against Texas A&M. So now Spikes leads with 488 yards on 85 carries and Mooty has 454 on 82.

Meredith flung for 164 yards against Texas to make his total 858 for six games. He has completed 64 out of 109 throws.

Second is Ronnie Stanley of Baylor, who has connected on 40 passes in 68 attempts for 366 yards.

Meredith has only six yards net rushing but he has 344 yards in total offense, which is 302 more than second place Charley Mott of Texas A&M, who has rolled up 540 yards.

Jack Collins of Texas averaged only 26 yards against Southern Methodist and lost his punting lead. Gordon Speer of Rice moved into first place with a 43.3 average compared to 40.9 for Collins.

Gwynn Gregory of Southern Methodist moved well out front in passing when he caught five against Texas. He has 17 for 225 yards.

Texas leads in team offense with 890.1 yards per game. The only team with 300 yards, Baylor leads in defense, allowing 165.9 yards per game.

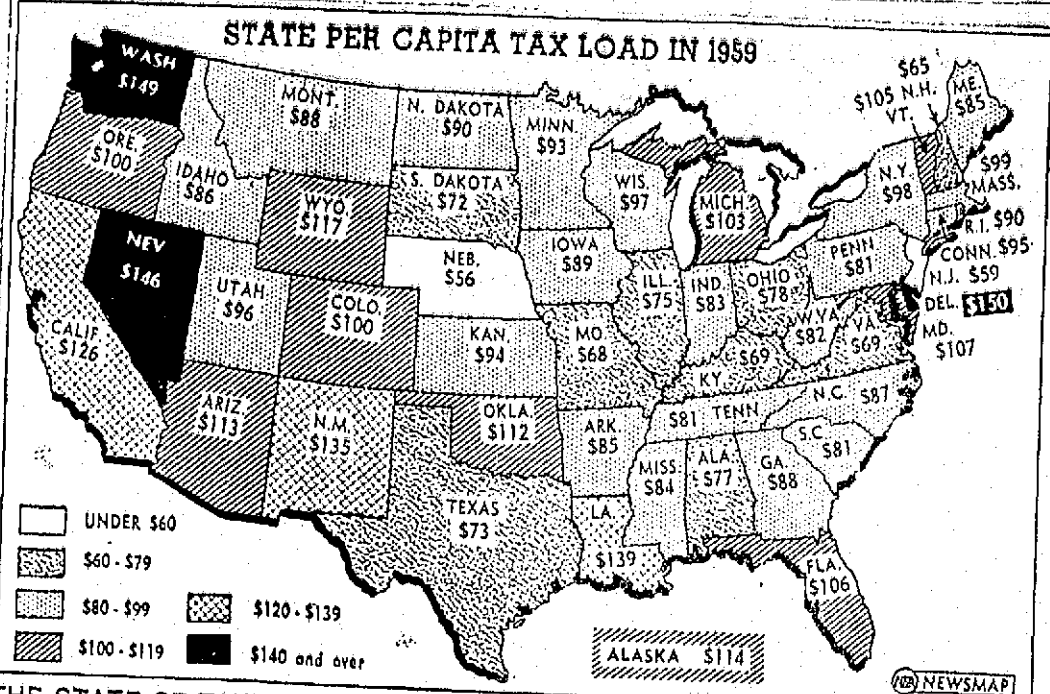

Both had little trouble in disposing of opponents Saturday night.

Arkansas state Teachers pounded strong Southern State, 32-6 at Conway, with Henry Hawk making 188 yards on 22 carries. Henderson worked up a sweat in the second quarter of its game with Arkansas A&M at Monticello, scoring three touchdowns, then rested and emerged with a 21-0 victory.

Ouachita blanked the College to the Ozarks 13-0 at Arkadelphia, while Arkansas Tech dumped Southwestern Oklahoma 13-7 at Russellville.

Harding College managed to get one touchdown, but Delta State trampled the Bisons 60-7 in a game at Cleveland, Miss.

THE STATE OF TAXES—Americans, no matter in what state they live, are paying over 50 per cent more in state taxes than they did 10 years ago. The national average during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1959, reached an all-time high of $91.70 per person, compared with about $60 in 1950. Figures for the individual states (see Newsmap above) ranged from $56 in Nebraska to $150 in Delaware. Forty-three states registered increases during the year while only six showed decreases. Total state tax collections in fiscal 1959 was $15.8 billion. When local taxes are included, this figure is doubled. Data from Commerce Clearing House.

Longhorns in Good Shape to Capture Title

By HAROLD V. BRATLIFF

The Texas Longhorns, many and talented, roll unbroken and untied into November's crucial stretch with grim little Baylor offering the first obstacle in the way to a Southwest Conference football championship.

The Golden Bears, happy for anything but ready to fight for everything, meet the charge of the mighty Longhorn at Austin Saturday. Texas will be favored to make Baylor its eighth victim of the season but it may not be easy.

Texas reached the halfway mark in its drive to a championship by crushing the hopes of pre-season favorite Southern Methodist 21-0 and now the Longhorns are aiming at Baylor.

Texas Christian and Texas A&M for their first unbeaten, untied season since 1920.

Over half the field — Baylor, Southern Methodist, Rice and Texas A&M — can be considered out of the title race. Left to fight for the pennant and the big money of the Cotton Bowl are Texas, Arkansas and Texas Christian.

Arkansas and Texas Christian can't make it, however, unless Texas loses a game, something it isn't expected to do.

ing the way and Arkansas tumbled Texas A&M 12-7 with Jim Mooty scoring both touchdowns.

The league was split out in inter-sectional play with Texas Tech losing to Tulane 17-7 and Rice taking a 19-6 thumping from Clemson. However, the season record is 15 victories, 8 losses and 1 tie with only two inter-sectional games to go — Texas Tech vs. Arizona Saturday and Baylor vs. Southern California Nov. 14.

Texas A&M & Southern Methodist play a consolation conference game at College Station Saturday while Arkansas goes to Houston to meet Rice. Texas Christian rests this week getting ready for the big battle with Texas Nov. 14.

The Texas-Southern Methodist game was well-played and thrilling to a crowd of 35,000 that came into the Cotton Bowl despite pouring rain. However, Texas dominated things from the beginning and had a pass defense able to stop the great Don Meredith from scoring — something comparatively new.

Youths Held in Car Theft Ring

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Police held two Memphis teenagers without bond today in connection with a string of car thefts across Arkansas. The boys also are wanted at Memphis for rape and auto theft, officers said.

Patrick Henry Sinclair, 19, and Gene Albert Gillia, 18, were arrested last night at a service station where they were trying to pawn a tire and wheel taken from one of the stolen cars. Police Capt. Bob Sutt said.

The attendant at the station became suspicious of the boys, who were driving a new car, and called police.

Sutt said the youths admitted stealing three cars — at Memphis, Little Rock and Clarksville — to pawn a tire and wheel taken from one of the stolen cars.

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made their trek across the state and wheel came from the ville auto, he said.

For the book review, Mrs. Rufus Sorrells presented "The People's House," an unpublished book whose author was not given. However, by the end of the review it was apparent that the speaker was also the author.

The variations on the perfume theme are so many this year that there's a Christmas gift for every woman, every purse. ## DOROTHY DIX

Why Do Suitors Just Fade Away?

Dear Dorothy Dix:
My single daughter, who is 28, is working at a fine position in a distant city. She is a charming, intelligent, well-dressed girl. Yet, when she meets a young man, he'll date her several times—sometimes for months—then when she begins to consider him seriously, he fades out of the picture. Could it be that she's too sincere, or too proper?—Anita

Dear Anita: Sincerity and propriety are not qualities that would drive away a man of serious intent. The fault must be sought elsewhere. Perhaps your daughter has a subconscious desire to retain her independence, and actually discourages her beaux when they approach the proposal stage.

Or, she may be overbearing, and, again, perhaps subconsciously tries too hard to make an impression.

Since she has no difficulty whatsoever in attracting young men, the snag comes with the fact that she can't keep them. The trouble, therefore, is within herself, and calls for a little analysis from both herself and you; the assistance of a third person would be helpful, but the third party obviously must be someone who knows her quite well. To make the proper impression on altar-bound young men, it's a good thing to have domestic abilities, too.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
My boy friend has already said he loved me, though we have been going together only a month. I love him, too, but don't know whether to believe him or not. I'm 16 and he's 19.—Karen

Dear Karen: A month is scarcely time enough for love to be assured; the boy is probably simply in his own judgment, which simply isn't mature enough to warrant your full trust. Why not continue the friendship, and wait for love to be more certain?

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I have been going steady with my girl friend for six months. We are both 16. On her last report card, the marks were so low that her father will not let her see me for the next month. What can we do about this unfair treatment?—Pete

Dear Pete: Your reasoning is altogether wrong. Since the young lady had her mind on you instead of her studies, something must be done to bring her back to earth. Her father's restrictions are perfectly in order, and if she expects to be accorded dating privileges again, she'll study hard to pass her conditional test. At 16 schoolwork is more important than dating—though it certainly is difficult to make young people realize it.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
My aunt gave me four pairs of lights for my birthday to wear in school. I was delighted since I only have knee-socks and tie-die warm knicker-bags in "high fashion" right now. The only trouble is my boy friend. He despises them, and won't even take me when I wear them. He says I look utterly silly. What to do? Please my boy friend and wear a lovely and expensive gown, or love him and wear the lights?—Annabelle

Dear Annabelle: Your boy friend is unreasonable. If you start now to give into unreasonable masculine demands you're a dead duck. Lights are a perfectly unobjectionable. He just won't accept new things. Wear the lights and chance his displeasure. I doubt if it will be long.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
My steady has started dating his old girl friend without a much as telling me we were through. I've seen them together so I can't be a case of believing in gossip. He won't talk to me about it, though. If I bring it up, he changes the subject. I'd like him to come back to me. Should I write him a letter?—Diana

Dear Diana: The boy is making quite clearly that he prefers someone else, though he wants to

Dear Dorothy Dix:
My aunt gave me four pairs of lights for my birthday to wear in school. I was delighted since I only have knee-socks and tie-die warm knicker-bags in "high fashion" right now. The only trouble is my boy friend. He despises them, and won't even take me when I wear them. He says I look utterly silly. What to do? Please my boy friend and wear a lovely and expensive gown, or love him and wear the lights?—Annabelle

Dear Annabelle: Your boy friend is unreasonable. If you start now to give into unreasonable masculine demands you're a dead duck. Lights are a perfectly unobjectionable. He just won't accept new things. Wear the lights and chance his displeasure. I doubt if it will be long.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
My steady has started dating his old girl friend without a much as telling me we were through. I've seen them together so I can't be a case of believing in gossip. He won't talk to me about it, though. If I bring it up, he changes the subject. I'd like him to come back to me. Should I write him a letter?—Diana

Dear Diana: The boy is making quite clearly that he prefers someone else, though he wants to

Thompson Has Resigned at Monticello

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP)—Horace E. Thompson, president of Arkansas A&M College since 1948, has resigned to take a job in Puerto Rico.

His resignation, effective Dec. 31, was expected in view of past friction between Thompson and the board of trustees at the school. This broke into the open at a board meeting last spring and Thompson announced he was looking for another job.

Thompson will become a coordinator of related activities for the Arkansas-owned Puerto Rico Meat Packing Co. and the Puerto Rico Development Commission in San Juan.

He declined to comment on the past differences with the board upon announcing his resignation. Both Thompson and Paul Godsey of England, board chairman, said the parting was harmonious.

Godsey said a special board meeting might be called to discuss a successor for Thompson, whose term would have expired next June. The next regular board meeting is scheduled Nov. 12.

in a barn Sunday night. Her mother, badly beaten but alive was found in the barn house.

The body of Ditee Boyd, clad only in socks and one shoe, was found by neighbors who investigated screams. Coroner Bill R. Bennett said a preliminary examination indicated she had been raped.

Sheriff D.M. Butler said Miss Boyd had been beaten about the head, her neck was cut on both sides, and she appeared to have been choked. A bloodstained plank was found near the body. A bloodstained pocket knife was found in the barn.

Her mother, Mrs. W.T. Boyd, 68, was found slumped in a rocking chair, bleeding from head lacerations. She was taken to a hospital in serious condition.

Population by '60 May Be 178 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau estimated the nation's population at 178,004,100 as of 8 a.m. today.

This was the calculation made for the bureau's "census clock," a counting device installed in the department lobby. The clock's figures change minute by minute to reflect the steady population growth.

On Jan. 1, the estimated population was 175,002,676. Part of the increase since then represents statehood for Alaska and Hawaii, which have combined populations of about 750,000.

Porkers Take A&M, Get Set for Rice Owls

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks scheduled a light practice today as they began preparation for a winless but always dangerous opponent — Rice.

Physically, the Porkers have a few troubles. Quarterback Jim Monroe is still bothered by a sore shoulder which flared up in the Hogs' 12-7 victory over Texas A&M Saturday. End Les Lottinger has a hurt left hip. Guard Billy Lupton, who sat out the A&M game because of injuries, should be ready to go against Rice.

Arkansas and Rice meet Saturday at Houston.

Halfback Jim Moaty, second in the Southwest Conference in ball carrying, was the big gun in Saturday's triumph. He scooted for 112 yards on 19 carries, giving him a total of 454 yards on 62 carries for the season. Jack Spikes, Texas Christian's rumbling fullback, leads the league with 486 yards on 95 carries.

Moaty scored both touchdowns against the Aggies, after the Cadets took a 7-0 lead in the third quarter. On the following kickoff, as sophomore HB Lance Alworth snared the ball and galloped 51 yards. Then Moaty took over and went another 33, then over the goal a couple of plays later.

The El Dorado flash tallied again minutes later on a six-yard dash. Texas A&M took the third quarter kickoff and drove 62 yards for its touchdown, with fullback S. J. Halpin plunging over from the three. The extra point was added by halfback Randy Sims.

Browns Take Colts Behind Jimmy Brown

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Jimmy Brown finally exploded, jarring Baltimore's world championship Colts out of the Western Conference lead and making Cleveland a contender again in the East as the National Football League races hit the halfway mark.

The 6-2, 229-pound bulldozer mixed speed with power for five touchdowns Sunday, triggering the near-record performance with the longest gain of his pro career—a 70 yard rumble with a pickout that got Cleveland rolling on a 38-31 victory over the Colts at Baltimore.

The Browns' feared fullback fell one short of tying the NFL record, but is only the third player to score five TDs in a single game. He is the first to do it in eight years.

With Cleveland backing Brown's break-through with a defense that was tough when needed, San Francisco's surprising 49ers leapfrogged the Colts into the Western lead with a 33-7 breeze over Detroit. That gave the 49ers, preseason picks for the second di-

LSU Ekes Out Victory Over Mississippi

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's been a bundle of Mondays since any Eastern college team excluding the service academies had any notions about a national football championship.

But Syracuse and Penn State have 'em today, especially the former, and the hunch is it'll take a strong man to talk down the winner—even granting the obvious claims of Louisiana State, Northwestern and Texas—after those two unbeaten tangle next Saturday.

The big game at University Park, Pa., is the second in a row matching two sectional titans—coming on the heels of defending national champ LSU's 7-3 squeaker over third-ranked Mississippi last Saturday night.

This one tries Syracuse, No. 3 nationally in the last Associated Press weekly poll, and winner of six straight, against Penn State, with a No. 7 national ledger and seven consecutive victories.

Meanwhile, LSU tries to run its winning streak to 20 at tough Tennessee, Northwestern (No. 2) is host to 10th ranked, once-beaten Wisconsin in the Big Ten showdown, and Texas, ranked fourth, entertains Baylor in another step toward the Southwest Conference title and the Cotton Bowl.

"Now we find out if we're a football team," said Syracuse coach Ben Schwartzwalder after the Orange had crushed Pitt 35-0 Saturday. He is still cautious despite statistics that list Syracuse first nationally in both offense & defense.

Their only common foe, West Virginia, fell to the Lions 28-10 last Saturday. Syracuse beat the Mounties 44-0.

There's Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Gator Bowl interest in the game and both—win or lose—might wind up grabbing a spot, just as looms possible for hard knocking Mississippi despite the loss.

The 67,000 who roared at All-American Billy Cannon's 89-yard scoring punt return beat Ole Miss after LSU had been outplayed and outgained probably would vote for an LSU-Mississippi rematch in the Sugar Bowl. Neither Syracuse nor Penn State can be considered since each has Negroes on the roster.

The United States Patent Office issued 48,406 patents in 1958.

Sword Dancer Back for a Key Race

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Sword Dancer, today presented an imposing list of credentials to back his candidacy for two of racing's most important titles.

The little chestnut son of Sun-glow from Isabel Dodge Stables' Brookmeade Stable virtually wrapped up horse of the year honors Saturday when he defeated Round Table, defending filchholder, by seven lengths in the $119,600 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Aqueduct. He is the leading candidate for the 3-year-old championship.

But just in case there is still some doubts among the voters, here are the Dancer's 1959 achievements:

Within a space of five weeks, he has defeated Round Table and Hildale, the only other serious challengers for horse of the year. Round Table lost twice to the star 3-year-old. In the 1 1/4 miles of the Woodward he edged Hildale by a nose and Round Table by 1 1/2 lengths. In the two-mile Gold Cup he turned back Round Table without jockey Eddie Arcaro ever using his whip.

He also is the leading money winner of the year. The $70,790 he earned in the Gold Cup boosted his 1959 bank account to $337,004. Hildale, now sidelined, had been No. 1 with $502,000.

His overall record for the year shows 13 starts with eight victories, four seconds and once out of the money.

With Arcaro in the saddle for his eighth Gold Cup triumph, Sword Dancer was clocked in 2:22 1/5. The time was just a second and four-fifths off the American and stake record hung up by Nashua as a 4-year-old in 1936.

"There can't be any doubt that he's the horse of the year and he may be the best in a long time," said Arcaro.

The Yerger High School B team after witnessing their elder's defeat in Friday night's Homecoming against Idabel, Okla., gave the same treatment to Stamps in its Homecoming Saturday night 28-0.

Yerger received the opening kickoff and fumbled at the mid-field stripe, Stamps recovered but couldn't move and were forced to punt. The first score of the game came when the Tigers recovered a Stamps fumble at the hosts' 35. J. C. McFadden carried to the 70, Warren hit Jamison from the 7 for the marker with Jamison converting to give Yerger a 7-0 lead.

Ward moved from his 45 to the Tiger 30 for the deepest penetration by Stamps in the first quarter. Johnson carried to the 14. The Tiger line held and took over on its own 13. Neither team was able to score again in the first half.

Stamps received the second half kickoff and fumbled the ball on the first play from scrimmage on their own 14 where a Tiger pounced on it. Zackery intercepted a Stamps pass at the 35. A penalty put the ball back on the 50. Then Stamps intercepted on its own 25. Warren recovered a Stamps fumble on the next play at the 40 yard line and hit Jamison on the 28. Warren cut through the Stamps line for the tally. Jamison converted, making it read 14-0.

Johnson of Stamps ran from offside penalty nullified the play. The Tigers took over on their own 45. Shaw went all the way for the TD. The PAT was successful. The next score resulted after Warren had moved from the 30 to the 1. Warren hit Jamison for the final tally, as Yerger won 29 to 0.

Abandoned Pups Sad Story
By JOE STETSON
Dog Editor, Field & Stream

This is the season when vacationers have packed their effects and hied back to winter quarters. A quietude descends upon vacation areas—a peacefulness anticipated by the natives who can settle down to enjoyment of the vision, a 5-1 record to Baltimore's 4-2.

Cleveland's third straight success left the Browns in a second place tie with Philadelphia in the East behind the New York Giants. The Giants (5-1) retained their one-game edge by smacking Green Bay 20-3. Philadelphia worked a 30-22 job on Washington.

The other teams went to the two Chicago teams, with the Cardinals walloping Pittsburgh 45-21 and the Bears beating Los Angeles 26-21.

Brown, who has led the NFL campaigns, setting a record with a 1,527 net last season, upped his six-game 1959 total to 737 yards—a 123-yard average.

He carried 32 times and moved 178 yards. His other TDs came on a 17-yard run and three Ernie Nevers set the one-game record of six touchdowns with the Cardinals against the Bears 30 years ago, and Cleveland's Bill Jones matched it, also against the Bears, in 1957.

For all Browns' brilliance, Cleveland had its hands full containing Johnny Unitas, who passed for all four Colt TDs. That gave him 17 scoring passes for the season and stretched his consecutive game record to 31.

I came upon a little mongrel bitch pup on an unimproved stretch of road. She still had baby teeth with which she was trying to forage on a squirrel that had been run over some days before. A check on futilities for a mile around indicated that she had been abandoned. Now she is sleeping in a warm kennel with a full belly.

I hope she sleeps sounder than those who abandoned her.
